

This paper craft project lets you play dress-up with traditional Ainu amip (clothing). These re-create the showy colors, intricate embroidery, and other such touches. You can dress boy and girl dolls in combinations of five kinds of outfits, three kinds of accessories, and a matanpus (headband).

Implements and Materials You'll Need

- Sturdy paper
- Scissors or utility knife • Ruler • Pencil • Tweezers
- Glue (Using stick glue for broad surfaces and wood glue for small and intricate pieces is recommended.)
- Pointed object, such as a ballpoint pen that has run out of ink
- Toothpicks (These are useful for applying glue thinly and to small and intricate pieces.)

 Cutout

How to Make

1. Use the pointed object to make creases along the fold lines.
2. Before cutting out the pieces, use the pencil to write their part numbers on the back of each.
3. Carefully cut out the pieces along their cut lines.
4. Following the instructions for outward and inward folds, fold the parts along the dotted lines.
5. Assemble by the attaching the pieces as shown in the diagram.

Important Notes – For Parents and Guardians

- Preschool children must be supervised by an adult and be kept in sight while assembling the item. Papercraft uses a variety of implements. To prevent unforeseen accidents, please give careful attention to the following points while enjoying crafting.
- Be very careful to avoid injury when children use scissors, utility knives, and other objects with blades.
 - Be careful to ensure that small children do not put glue or adhesive in their mouths or swallow small pieces.
 - This craft uses paper, which may become unusable if it gets wet. Be careful not to handle pieces with wet hands.
 - Display near open flame or other heat sources can cause fire or discoloration.
 - Some finished papercraft items have pointed areas. Be careful to ensure that children do not strike others with these items.

For You to Color Yourself

Decorate with your favorite colors!

So what colors will you pick?

Traditional Ainu clothing is made of cotton in such colors as black, navy, and brown.

Conversely, clothing and other articles of contemporary make sometimes also use red, purple, green, and the like, depending on the colors of the materials. Color these items using traditional colors or color them with the colors you prefer, and learn about the patterns and designs!
